LES LETTRES ET LES ARTS.

PARIS—NEW YORK.

LES LETTRES ET LES ARTS is published monthly in Paris by Messrs. BOUSSOD, VALADON & Co. (successors of GOUPIL & Co.), and simultaneously in New York by Messrs. CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, sole importers for the United States and Canada. It is the most sumptuous art periodical ever published, and has been so favorably received in this country that beginning with January, 1888, there have been a French edition—Les Lettres et les Arts—with the letter-press in French; and an English edition—Art and Letters—with the original letter-press carefully translated into English. In all other respects the two editions are identical, and both are printed in Paris.

TWO EDITIONS,

WEALTH OF ILLUSTRATION.

It is the aim of the publishers to surpass all previous attempts at illustration, and to this end they have secured the active co-operation of the most eminent and popular artists in all departments. Every article will be illustrated by engravings, photo-gravures, typogravures, etchings or gravures en couleur, and each number will contain about thirty plates. The variety and perfection of the Goupil and other processes at the command of the publishers insure unequalled results.

---

"It is magnificently printed on the most beautiful paper, and illustrated by some of the first artists. The literary value of the text is of the highest kind."—N. Y. Nation.

"The most elaborate and meritorious publication in magazine form that has yet been undertaken."—N. Y. Times.

"It represents at once the highest French literature and the best of modern art."—Boston Herald.

"It exceeds in size, variety, and artistic importance anything of a similar nature that has been undertaken."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"The most fascinating periodical that even Paris has produced."—Philadelphia Times.

"Easily the first publication of its kind in the world."
—N. Y. Tribune.
